Q.1 Identify the cohesive devices giving their types in the following passage. 10

The families from Fort Street were allowed four of the smaller tents. They were tiny army tents. The canvas sloped sideways from two poles in the centre, and the space inside could barely accommodate a single family. Bibi Amar Vati was given a full tent for her family. The Sardars too, because of the special condition of IsherKaur, got a tent to themselves. Lalakanshi Ram allowed Padmini and Chandni, the charwoman and her daughter, to move in with his family. The remaining families moved together into the fourth tent. (From Azadi, ChamanNahal)

Q.2 Identify the mode (speech or writing) of the given discourse giving two characteristics. 10

Q.2 Write a critical appreciation of the following poem with the help of the points given below. 10

Break, break, break
On the cold gray stones, O sea!
And I would that my tongue could utter
The thoughts that arise in me
O well for the fisherman's boy
That he shouts with his sister at play!
o well for the sailor lad
That he signs in his boat on the bay!
And the stately ships go on
To their haven under the hill
Bot o for the touch of a vanished hand
And the sound of a vice that is still!
Break, break, break
At the foot of thy crags O sea
But the tender grace of a day that is dead
Will never come back to me
Break, break, break, by Alfred Tennyson

- What is the theme of the poem?
- Why do you think does the speaker say “cold gray stones?”
- How does the speaker react to the fisherman's boy and to the sailor lad?
- Comment on the structure of the poem?
